Giving Opportunity

If you or someone you know is 70½ or older, there is a special giving opportunity available! During 2009, tax-free gifts from an IRA may be made to a charity! This is a smart way to use regularly heavily-taxed IRA assets, so heirs can be left with more tax-wise assets. By sharing your IRA assets with a charity today, you'll be able to feel good about your gift...and make a difference for many lives!
